

Sawubona, Alabaster

Doris Gailey (retired—Swaziland), her daughter Sharon Lee, and Sharon's daughter, Kelsey, posed for a photo outside the window of the room Sharon was born at Raleigh Fitkin Memorial Hospital, built with Alabaster funds. It was meaningful for Sharon to show Kelsey for the first time where she was born and grew up. The photos were taken December 1, 2008. Sawubona on the shirt means “hello”.

Ellen Gailey Decker
Dover, Pennsylvania
(Also a daughter of Charles and Doris Gailey)

Because people gave, the medical needs of the Swazi people—and the missionaries—were met.

Picture may be downloaded from the Alabaster page on the NMI website.